Econosto will be named ERIKS

Dear valued customer,

Econosto Nederland bv will change its name to ERIKS bv starting December 1, 2018.

Except a new name, nothing will change in our current collaboration. You will work with the same contacts and we offer you the same services. However, the possibilities will increase. More information can be found on www.eriks.nl.

We request you to change our company name, commercial registration number, VAT number and bank account in your administration. The business addresses will remain the same. Below you will find our company details.

Frequently asked questions can be found on page 2. We assume you can process the changes correctly with this information. You can contact us for further information at all times.

We look forward to a successful continuation of our collaboration.

Yours sincerely,
Econosto Nederland bv
